About the fees you pay

Your fees go right back to the youth in the arts; minus a $75 nonrefundable administrative deposit that is applied to the final fee. Creatures of Impulse's touring program has taken our young performers to the Teen Comedy Festival in Chicago for four seasons, Southern California for performances and master classes, to perform in San Francisco, and locally in the Tri-Valley. Your fees go to support youth in the arts by giving COI members opportunities to share their passion for the performing arts with their peers and other youth in the Bay Area and California.
